Celebrating 100 Years of St. Paul's

1926

1931

1958

Did you know that September 15, 2026 marks the 100th anniversary of classes at St. Paul's College? As part of the festivities, this newspaper will be featuring a series of highlights from our beloved College's past.

The header of this special issue has been made in the style of the very first student newspaper at St. Paul's College, The Crusader, back in December 1941. Under the leadership of the first editor, Paul Adams, that first newspaper featured warm Christmas greetings, and articles with headlines as striking as 'Catholic and Socialist are Contradictory Terms.' The name Adams should be a familiar one, as Paul Adams was the father of our current Rector, Dr. Christopher Adams.

As the year progresses there will be much to celebrate, including the Cafeteria's new sound system, and the opening of soccer and volleyball intramurals to all College members. See the reverse side of this paper for a list of this month's activities!
